

Additional Features

3150 Forest Knolls

- * Serene and peaceful location with 1.25 acre pond, creek and ornamental garden.
- * Home designed and built by John Hartley, noted Chapel Hill architect, so that every window overlooks the pond or creek.
 - * Constructed of non-toxic materials and environmental sensitivity.
- * Surrounded by hardwood and pine forest, the pond is stocked with bream, bass, catfish, grass carp and koi.
- * Hexagonal deck offers seating with views in all directions from which to view the kingfishers, ospreys and herons.
 - * Perennial gardens offer blooms nearly all year round.
- * Covered front entry porch overlooking secluded forest and creek leads to tiled entry foyer with ample storage closet.
 - * Great room offers cathedral ceiling, wood-burning fireplace with custom tile accents, and a wall of built-in bookshelves.
 - * Sliding glass doors in the dining area provide access to deck and gardens.
- * Gourmet kitchen with Bosch dishwasher, downdraft cooktop and wall ovens features peninsula work & bar area, cabinets with pullout drawers and pantry.
 - * Built-in bookshelves provide storage for cookbooks too!
 - * Red oak flooring upstairs and downstairs with matching trim on windowsills.
- * Dramatic master suite with large walk-in closet, built-in bookshelves and window seat with storage.
- * Master bath includes whirlpool tub with custom tile surround and separate shower and linen closet storage.
- * Two spacious bedrooms on second floor – one with sitting area overlooking the pond and one with window seat overlooking the creek.
 - * Floored attic space for additional storage.
- * Large utility room on main level with countertops and cabinets over front-loading washer and dryer.
 - * Garage includes storage shelving and large workbench.